MORE HIGH BUILDINGS

That lovely little building, 2 Columbus Circle, -the former Huntington Hartford Museum- may be given away if Mr. Dyson has his way. Presently the building is available rent free from Viacom if a City agency occupies it. Again you would think if a City agency (New York Convention and Visitors Bureau) occupies the building rent free, if the community considered the building a jewel, that it would remain to grace Columbus Circle. But that is not the case. The relentless drive to demolish and erect high buildings prevails.

THE BARBARIANS ARE AT THE GATE;

POISED AT THE COLISEUM, INTENT ON INVADING AND DESTROYING OUR CIVILIZED COMMUNITY. BUT NEVER WILL IT BE SAID THAT WE DID NOT RALLY TO PROTECT THE WESTSIDE OF MANHATTAN.
